MANUFACTURING WORK-BASED LEARNING PROGRAM

GAINESVILLE-HALL COUNTY
GEORGIA

Like working with your hands?

Get bored sitting at a desk all day?

HEY – you should check out
GAINESVILLE-HALL COUNTY'S MANUFACTURING WORK-BASED LEARNING PROGRAM.

WHOA,

don't stop reading yet. You think manufacturing is like some dirty warehouse filled with sweaty workers on an assembly line?
Not today's manufacturing.

Not even close.

LEAVE EVERYONE ELSE

BEHIND

Get a job and go your own way in today's high-tech world of manufacturing.

American manufacturing has made a huge comeback. Did you know that nearly 3.5 million manufacturing jobs will be needed over the next decade? With that kind of high demand, we're talking SERIOUS MONEY – particularly for skilled positions.

Manufacturing jobs today can pay more than $40,000 a year (a lot more than that pizza delivery job) and allow you to avoid college debt while earning full vacation and health benefits! Plus, you can build a career WORKING WITH YOUR HANDS instead of behind a desk.

“ This isn't your Grandpa's manufacturing anymore. Industry today is more about ADVANCED ROBOTICS, 3-D PRINTING and INTEGRATED IT SYSTEMS. ”

WANT IN?

Local industries throughout Gainesville and Hall County are searching for high school students who are eager to work and learn a valuable skill.

So, whether you're ready to get started or still deciding, talk to your school's Work-Based Learning coordinator. He or she can answer your questions about getting hired and making $$$ now toward a career path and continuing education.
