These members believe being involved in the Greater Hall Chamber is a solid business investment.

"The Greater Hall Chamber has been instrumental in helping grow our business over the last 20 years. Kit Dunlap and the entire Chamber team are true professionals and always willing to assist and support our business in any way possible."

Anthony Shope, Halski Systems

"For our new, start-up company, the Chamber has been a godsend. The opportunities we've received to learn, lead, and be a part of the community are second to none. We highly encourage all area businesses to join and get involved."

Phil & Jessica Palacios, Cardinal Ridge Group

"The Chamber has provided an abundance of networking opportunities that have given our organization amazing new partnerships. Being a member brings you into a family of business that you can lean on and reach out to, giving you a broader and new network."

Kevin Wells, Humane Society of Northeast Georgia

"I've gathered great leads from the Chamber and being a part of the Ambassadors Council. Interacting with members through this group is a great way to communicate with the business community and get involved."

Carrie Casey, Holiday Inn Express

"Business truly is about relationships. Since joining the Chamber, I have created lasting and meaningful relationships with like-minded people who inspire me to do more."

Joseph Burris, Forte Maintenance Management

"The Chamber has been a valuable resource providing informative events that help in building relationships in the community and provide a wealth of knowledge about business management."

Matt Waters, United Community Bank

"Being a Chamber member is a wonderful opportunity to network and get involved in the community. The Chamber also offers great seminars, workshops, and learning opportunities throughout the year."
