

OCTOBER 14-17, 2020

MOTUL PETIT LE MANS & FOX Factory 120

WEATHERTECH SPORTSCAR CHAMPIONSHIP THE CLASSES

DAYTONA PROTOTYPE INTERNATIONAL (DPI)
The fastest and most technologically advanced sports cars in North America, the Daytona Prototype International (DPI) is specifically designed and engineered for the race track. DPI cars use chassis built to international specifications powered by engines from mainstream automotive manufacturers like Acura, Cadillac, and Mazda. In addition, DPI bodywork includes styling cues that align with these engine manufacturers.

LE MANS PROTOTYPE 2 (LMP2)
The Le Mans Prototype 2 (LMP2) is a closed cockpit car developed by four approved constructors. In addition to the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship, LMP2 cars are eligible to compete in other global series such as the FIA World Endurance Championship, which includes the prestigious 24 Hours of Le Mans.

GT LE MANS (GTLM)
Utilizing the same technical regulations as the 24 Hours of Le Mans, the GTLM cars are the most elite and fastest GT cars on the track. Based on production models, they are engineered to extract the maximum performance possible. The class serves as a true proving ground for leading manufacturers such as BMW, Corvette, Ferrari, and Porsche.

GT DAYTONA (GTD)
The GT Daytona cars are enhanced (not defined by) technology and utilize the global FIA-GT3 specification. The GTD class consists of cars from leading manufacturers such as Acura, Audi, BMW, Ferrari, Lamborghini, Lexus, McLaren, Mercedes-AMG, and Porsche.

WEEKEND SCHEDULE PACKED FULL OF ACTION

The 10-hour Motul Petit Le Mans on Saturday, October 17th is certainly the feature of the weekend schedule, but there is plenty of additional racing action to enjoy in between IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship sessions! Beginning on Wednesday and culminating on Friday with the FOX Factory 120, fans can experience three additional series of unique racing. The FOX Factory 120 on Friday afternoon showcases the IMSA Michelin Pilot Challenge, while the IMSA Prototype Challenge and the Porsche GT3 Cup Challenge USA by Yokohama will also be competing for victory at the Motul Petit Le Mans event weekend. These series offer fans a different kind of racing to appreciate – the action is non-stop at the 23rd Annual Motul Petit Le Mans!
